ED CHENEY IN LIMBO.

CHARGED WITH STEALING CATTLE BY THE WHOLESALE.

Three of His Pals Also Captured—Is There an Organized Band of Horse Thieves?

Edward Cheney was arrested by Constables Downey and Ross yesterday on the charge of cattle stealing in the Creek country. There are four indictments against Cheney for grand larceny, and the officers have been laying for him for some time. His arrest yesterday was made on a warrant sworn out in Justice Morgan's court. Three of his pals named J. R. Freeman, George Ricker and John McMurray, were also arrested. One of the indictments against the Cheney gang charges them with stealing thirty head of cattle belonging to T. H. Richardson, D. Knight and other farmers. Cheney's bond was fixed at $3,200 on the four indictments. His examination takes place on the 11th inst.

It is intimated that Cheney is head of an organized gang of rustlers, who have been committing depredations in the Creek and other Indian nations for some time. The matter will be thoroughly ventilated in the courts.

CALLS HOGAN A BLUFFER.

Paddy Shea Accepts Babcock's Challenge, but Laughs at "De Kid."

Paddy Shea, the pugilist who is now the king of Perry sporting circles, has read the challenges of C. H. Babcock and Kid Hogan as published in The Leader to fight his great unknown Shea crawfishes as regards Hogan and endeavors to crawl out of a box by terming the kid a bluffer. In regard to the matter the Democrat of Perry says:

A Democrat reporter talked with Paddy Shea to-day and Shea stated that Hogan's challenge was a bluff, and that he, Hogan, could in no way be given consideration, as he was too small. As to Babcock, the 138 pound unknown was here and ready to fight him. Shea concluded by saying he would fight both Hogan and Babcock in one ring at the same time and at any time or place for any sum of money.

GIVEN TWENTY-FOUR HOURS.

Charles Longshore, a Whisky Seller, Gets a Light Sentence in District Court.

In district court yesterday Charles Longshore, charged with disposing of whisky in the Indian country, plead guilty and was sentenced to twenty-four hours imprisonment in jail. The culprit had been in jail awaiting trial for several weeks, and his sentence was made easy on that account.

The jury in the case of George Day, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses, returned a verdict of guilty yesterday. Day was sentenced to a term in jail and also given a fine.

Lee Johnson and G. W. Crouse plead guilty to selling whisky to Indians and were each given thirty days in jail.

OLD SOLDIER'S REUNION.

Veterans Will Meet on October 18, 19 and 20.

The Logan county Union soldier's association will hold its first reunion on October 18, 19 and 20. Many good speakers from home and abroad will be in attendance. A good time is assured and all are invited, and especially the old soldiers of the territory, to attend this reunion and campfire and renew their experiences and partake of genuine army refreshments.

Judge Scott on the Bench.

Judge Henry Scott is holding court at Norman this week and those who have attended from here say he bears his honors with becoming modesty and dignity. Although only 28 years of age and quite boyish in appearance, Judge Scott has the correct conception of the dignity of his office and the respect which should be shown a judge on the bench, and the old stagers who conceive that they can run over him on account of his youth will find themselves very much mistaken. We predict that he will give perfect satisfaction in the position.

Harmless—Blood Up to the Brills.

Lunatic (screaming)—Ar-r-r-r! blood! blood! blood! Murder, fire death and destruction! Ar-r-r-r-r!

Visitor—My stars! I guess I'll be getting out of here. That fellow is dangerous.

Keeper—Oh, no! He is perfectly harmless. Thanks he is Governor Waite of Colorado.

Big Potatoes.

Potatoes grow to an ungody size in the Chandler neighborhood. One of the yam variety, that weighed nearly four pounds and measured thirteen inches long and twelve inches around, was being exhibited on the streets yesterday.

Great Country, This.

A man near Norman lost his calf last week and found it in a pumpkin patch belonging to a neighbor. So says the Democrat. This reminds one of the rumor that at the Stillwater fire they had to tap two or three watermelons to quench the flames.

Incorporated.

The Clarke toy and notion company incorporated yesterday. The capital stock is $12,000, $40,000 paid. H. T. Mudd of Pike county, Illinois, holds 50 shares; Laura E. Scott, 30; Walter K. and Charles E. Scott, 1 each.

Boomers' supplies, quinine, extract Jamaica ginger, Little's pills, etc. All will be needed in the strip. Buy them at Little's drug store, corner Harrison and Second street.

The Miffit Clothing Parlor has moved to 206 Harrison avenue, third door west of First street. Don't forget the place.

COMMITTED SUICIDE.

Two Guthrie Courtisans Take Their Own Lives at Sedalia.

At Sedalia, Tuesday, Alice LeRoy, known also as Alice McKay, a courtisan who made Guthrie her home for several years, committed suicide by swallowing morphine. Another scarlet woman named Boynton, and a friend of LeRoy, upon seeing her dead friend, placed a revolver to her own head and blew out her brains. The LeRoy woman, it is said, was an inmate of Stafford's place in this city and went to Sedalia last week. Several months ago she was married to a young man of this city, but he soon wearied of her, and she left the city to end her sorrow and career of sin and debauchery.

The remains of W. W. Porter, who died at his home on Oak street Tuesday evening, was buried Thursday by the A. O. U. W., of which order the deceased was a member. He came from Albany, Mo., last year and leaves a family.

Messrs. A. Pitts of Kansas City and Charles F. Gates of Buffalo, N. Y., came down from Perry last night, feeling none the better with the large supply of dust on hand. Mr. Pitts has been speculating at Perry since the rush, and Mr. Yates is "doing" the strip for Buffalo papers.

WANTED—Rooms with or without board for gentleman and wife. Address, until 6 o'clock this evening, '57 DAILY LEADER office.

Wouldn't Make Rates.

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—The general managers of the Central traffic association lines to-day declined to make a reduced rate of 1 cent per mile for Chicago day. All they would do was to give to each road the right to run its special excursion trains at a rate of one fare for the round trip at any time it may select. At present the excursions are being run only on alternate days. The tickets have a ten-day limit. The reason given for refusing to make the rate is that the roads are now handling as many people as possible at the present rates and if more people tried to come on lower rates the roads would be unable to transport them to and from Chicago.

Cheap Rates to Chicago.

Beginning to-day people desiring to visit the world's fair can buy round trip tickets until Monday from Guthrie to Chicago at $17.00. These tickets will be good until the 18th.

Salvation Army supper.

The Salvation Army gave a pie and milk social at the armory last night. The attendance was large and lots of pie was soaked in the milky whey.

ODDITIES AND VARIETIES.

One out of every 180 inhabitants of the United States owns or rides a bicycle.

It is said that nearly 15,000 people die of consumption in New England every year.

A man at Belfast, Maine, who recently advertised for a servant girl, found it necessary to add, "No whisky player need apply."

The London geological society has offered $2,500 for five musk oxen (two males and three females) delivered alive and in good condition in London.

At a dinner of the Philadelphia Clover club in New York, General Horace Porter said he was surprised to see plates at the dinner, because in Philadelphia he noticed in several dentist windows the sign, "Teeth Without Plates."

Photographs of growing plants show some marvelous results, especially among the climbers. The young stems are said to move in a succession of irregular circular or elliptical curves, which vary in every direction. These movements are due to the irregular growth in various parts of the stem.

The natives of the southern part of West Virginia have a queer way of conveying the idea of distances. The traveler who asks how far it is to a certain point is likely to be told that it is "a couple of looks," or "two looks an' a hoot." A look is as far as you can see, and a hoot is the distance a human voice is supposed to carry.

A large python from West Africa, in the Zoological gardens at Breslau, Germany, is said to have recently swallowed a lion, which measured seven feet in length and correspondingly thick. The circumference of the lion throughout its length was from twenty-three to twenty-eight inches, and its skin was expanded to double its usual size.

The poet Campbell, on one occasion, retiring to rest with his thoughts full of a new poem, after a little uneasy slumber, suddenly awoke about 2 o'clock and found himself repeating the words, "Events to come cast their shadows before." He called at once for lights and a cup of tea, and before daybreak had completed a portion of "Loebli's Warning."
